

DI 969 Blackwater Road, D'arcy

$1,150,000

Want to really get away from it all? How about 156 acres of level open meadows of partly fenced range land for horses and cattle leading up to a gently sloping bench land of second growth coniferous and deciduous forest with a roadway through to access the huge timber value should one be so inclined? There are two crystal clear creeks running through the property with water rights to one. The gorgeous Birkenhead Lake is just minutes away for world class fishing plus the hidden gem Blackwater Lake is close by as well. There is an abundance of wildlife in the area & prime mushroom picking in season. The mountain views will take your breath away & the clear air will make you feel some much more relaxed and revitalized. The adjoining 83 acres may also be available...get back to nature!
